

Taxation Services

Solutions. Not problems.

Ascenta is a progressive accounting, business advisory and financial services group. Since 1983 we have been helping businesses and people like you achieve their goals, by seeking opportunities in the tax system to build value.

Not by hiding from it.

If you're only getting annual compliance services from your accountant, you are missing out.

Who we are

Ascenta has a 75-strong team of accounting, business consulting and financial planning professionals committed to understanding you and your circumstances. We listen to your concerns, plans and dreams and work with you to help you reach your business and personal goals.

As part of the Walker Wayland Australasia network and with connections to BKR International, we have over 130 member firms with more than 80 offices in 67 countries throughout the world. With Ascenta you have connections to global resources and advice.

"Over the years trust has been built between us and SRJ. The relationship works really, really well. We are comfortable with each other."

Darelle Nester, Norths Leagues & Services Club

What we can do for you

Whether you are the owner or manager of a small or large business, we have the specialist knowledge to help you with everything from business coaching and consulting to accessing Government funded programmes, business mergers & acquisitions, and estate and succession planning. Our team has detailed knowledge of issues across all industries and we tailor solutions for you and your business. Our advice is always practical, to the point and realistic.

At Ascenta we understand there is more to you and your business than financial statements, so our team of accounting and financial professionals provides you with integrated, holistic and cohesive advice.

Experience the difference of working with a skilled and friendly team of professionals who want you to achieve your goals.

"SRJ does not just provide accounting advice. They attend our strategic planning meetings to help devise effective strategies for sustained growth."

Kurt Hogan, Mediquip Pty Ltd

Taxation

"SRJ/Ascenta always provides information on the latest tax and government legislation. We have confidence in the advice they provide and the options they provide us."

Todd & Megan Mason, TPM Builders

Many of us find managing our business or personal tax affairs painful. At Ascenta we believe tax planning creates opportunities for you. Managing your tax well affects your present financial position, but can have significant long-term implications for you down the track. Having your tax return completed professionally can save you money - and even make you money - in the long term.

Our team of professionals genuinely want to see you secure a sound financial future. The first step towards that future is only a phone call away.

Our Team

Members of the SRJ tax team have significant experience in the provision of compliance and taxation services. Like other reputable taxation advisors and accountants, we will ensure you receive excellent service, including a quality taxation advice.

But for us it goes further than that. Our team is made up of real people with a real passion for working together and building relationships with you and your team. Our wish is to be part of the team that sees you realise your business and personal dreams.

Tax Directors

Steven Jones has a Commerce Degree, is a Chartered Accountant and Facilitator with Mindshop International. Steven has been a Director at SRJ for 10 years. With over 20 years' experience, Steven advises businesses on issues relating to the start-up, management and development of businesses.
